

How Can Astrology Help In Predicting Marriage?

Marriage is an important event that brings a paradigm shift in the life journey of every person. Since happiness, success, and other important aspects of life ultimately depend on marriage and life partner, everyone looks at marriage with great expectations.

According to Marriage prediction by date of birth, the 7th house in your horoscope is associated with marriage. The planet that facilitates marriage is Venus. The list of lucky planets in everyone's kundli comprises Jupiter, Venus, Mercury, and the Moon. The list of unlucky planets includes the Sun, Saturn, Mars, Rahu, and Ketu. While benefic planets lead to early marriage, inauspicious planets lead to delay in marriage.

What is the reason for early marriage?

When the number of auspicious planets in the 7th house is high then the candidates will get married at a very early age, for example between 16 to 23 years. If Mercury and Venus are jointly placed in the seventh house then the candidate will get married soon. If any auspicious planet is placed with Saturn in the seventh house then the marriage will be finalized at an early age, but after 2 years.

What is the cause of delay in marriage?

The reasons for late marriage in the horoscope include planets like the Sun, Saturn, and Rahu. If any of the planets Sun, Saturn, or Rahu are seen situated in the seventh house then there will be a delay in marriage.

What will happen if there is no planet in the seventh house?

If there is no planet in the seventh house then marriage may happen early or late depending on the position of other planets in the birth chart.

How to predict the time of marriage?

Astrological predictions for marriage can also tell you when you are most likely to get married. Jupiter stays in one zodiac sign for 13 months and then moves to the next zodiac sign. Your marriage year can be predicted based on the position of Jupiter in your horoscope. While marriage is an important turning point in life and, naturally, people may have some concerns about their marriage, studying the birth chart closely and gathering necessary information from it can help in drawing some conclusions about the marriage.

Conclusion

Here's how you can make astrological predictions for marriage. Astrology predictions for marriage can give you some details like whether you will get married, if yes when you can expect it, why marriage happens at a very young age, and why marriage is delayed.
